Featured Author of the Month

Congratulations to Elaina S., in Grade 2F, for being the Featured Author of the Month. Elaina has won a lunch of her choice, and her story is featured below.

NOW THAT WAS WEIRD

(This book is dedicated to my Grandpa)

Today some weird stuff happened to me. It all started in the morning when I was getting dressed.

I went to look in my dresser and Gabby's clothes were in there!

Then when I got to school Gabby was wearing my clothes!

The teacher was wearing a Peppa Pig costume!

Then Dom was wearing pants! Well that isn't weird, but he always wears shorts.

Soon it is time to eat snack. It was weird, everyone was eating mosquitoes.

Then it was gym, the teacher was wearing a Minecraft suit.

Then it was lunch.

It was all normal until the lunch ladies came out and Mr. Kalahar danced with funky music and big puffy hair!

Finally it was the end of the day.

"Elaina! Wake up! You are going to be late for school!"

IT WAS ALL A DREAM!

THE END

About the Author

Elaina's favorite subject in school is gym. When she grows up she would like to be a teacher and a professional singer. Her favorite color is blue. After school she likes to go home and play Minecraft. She likes to play basketball and soccer.

Catholic schools in the Diocese of Grand Rapids celebrate Catholic Schools Week

Welcome Scholarships available for 2018-19

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. – More than 6,600 students in 30 Catholic schools across the Diocese of Grand Rapids are celebrating national Catholic Schools Week, Jan. 28-Feb. 3. This year’s theme is “Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed.” Events will highlight how Catholic education provides lifelong benefits for students and their communities.

In honor of Catholic Schools Week, the diocese is pleased to announce that Welcome Scholarships will be available for new families for the 2018-19 school year. Welcome Scholarships provide $250 at the preschool level, $750 for K-8, and $1,000 in grades 9-11 to students who are new to Catholic schools. Welcome Scholarships originally were offered through the three-year Bishop’s Catholic Schools Initiative (2015-16 through 2017-18) and will continue under the “Catholic Schools: Bridging Faith and Future” strategic plan. Catholic schools in the diocese are also celebrating three straight years of enrollment growth and the decision to open the new independent St. Robert Catholic School in Ada this fall.

“Catholic Schools Week is an opportunity to thank the families, faculty, school leaders, clergy and supporters who make our Catholic schools a success,” said David Faber, superintendent of Catholic schools in the diocese. “Every day, I am grateful for their year-round dedication and service.”

Catholic Schools Week activities at different schools include food drives for those in need, assembling thank-you baskets for emergency responders, and open houses, just to name a few. Additionally, several hundred student representatives and educators from across the diocese will gather for Mass at the Cathedral of Saint Andrew (301 Sheldon Blvd., Grand Rapids) at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 30, to give thanks for the gift of Catholic school education. Most Reverend David J. Walkowiak, bishop of Grand Rapids, will preside at Mass.

Mass is open to the media, and Superintendent Faber will be available for interviews beforehand at 9:45 a.m. on the Cathedral steps.

Visit CatholicSchools4U.org for more information about Catholic schools in the Diocese of Grand Rapids and to apply for Welcome Scholarships.

Nearly 2 million children across the United States attend Catholic schools. Catholic Schools Week began in 1974 and is a joint project of the National Catholic Educational Association (NCEA) and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB).

Catholic schools in the Diocese of Grand Rapids are an alliance of 30 vibrant learning communities (25 elementary and five high schools) serving more than 6,600 preschool through 12th grade students within a seven-county area of West Michigan. Our schools inspire young people to grow in Catholic faith and grace, achieve more in school and life, develop creativity and character, and feel welcomed and cherished for their unique gifts. We partner with parents to awaken the whole child to a world of light and life—that grows better and brighter when children reach their potential. # # #
